Fall 2020 Online Spanish

This might be a helpful resource for you?

Parents,

I hope this email finds you and your family doing well.

As we get settled into the fall 2020 semester, I wanted to share something that I thought might help you and your child (children) out if you are interested

I don't know if you're already familiar with Sarah's Spanish School?

Generally, we partner with them for after-school Spanish, but this year they have a really cool online option instead.

The founder, Sarah, has put together a full semester Spanish course for students grades K-6th.

We all know how important variety can be for kids during this time.

I also know how hard it must be to juggle the role of teacher, parent, and professional at the same time.

My hope is that Sarah's online Spanish course would be a fun learning resource that our students can look forward to participating in.

As well as a resource that could free you up for a few hours per week to cross off some to-do's on your list.

At any rate, it's a resource that I thought would be helpful - and I just wanted to share it with you.

You can get more information about it here: www.sarahsspanishschool.com

I am anxiously waiting for the day we open our doors again!

Until then,

Stay safe, stay healthy and please, let me know if there is anything I can do to help.

Best Wishes,
